REVIEW OF 2007 FORD F350 ENGINE DIAGRAMS

- Bill Maher TV show should have been called Politically Correct. Maher is a lefty stooge who spends some of his time hanging out at the Playboy mansion with Hef. The good news is Hef's "empire" is losing money hand over fist so Maher will eventually have to go out and find his own whores. Maher constantly parroted the Democratic Party line on his incredibly lame TV show. This book is another DNC cut & paste job. Maher fails to address the Clinton open border policy & the uncontrolled immigration policies which was a primary cause of 9-11. Mr. Atta, 9-11 terrorist leader, laughed at the joke security & INS polocias at Miami airport. During the same period of time, the Clinton's INS devoted a huge amount of resources to catch Elian Gonzalez. Meanwhile, Atta was slipping in and out of the U.S. through Miami airport & laughing his head off. In addition, Maher fails to address why Clinton failed to do anything after we were bombed 6 times and ambushed once by Al Qaeda. Clinton sent Louis Freeh's corrupt FBI to investigate and did nothing else. Clinton felt bombing Kosovo for 70 days would get Monica off the front page. Tackling Al Qaeda or a real threat might hurt Clinton poll numbers. Bill Maher never addresses why 9-11 & Bin Laden happened, he just make more excuses for Bill Clinton and blames SUV drivers. Avoid this garbage. Maher proves in his tome that he really is a sleazy character.

- I think that this is my favorite Anne book. I have read it over a hundred times to myself and soon I will need to order a new copy. It tells the ongoing story of Anne Shirley and chronicles her adventures in higher education, friendship, love, and of course WRITING! This is not a childrens' book as some might think. It is very easy to read, but it is for people of all ages. Of course, it features the same Gilbert Blythe who we all know and love as Anne's constant admirer and the irredeemably Sloanish Charlie. She also has Priscilla Grant at her side. She also makes a new friend, Phillippa Gordon, who makes Anne's freshman year wonderful and may someday prove to be quite sensible. In the course of the book, Anne will gain friends and admirers as well as continue to matchmake and write (of Course). She will have her share of joy, tears, loss, and love and ultimately set her course for her life beyond the bend in the road. I learned an important life lesson from this book, you never value what you have until you have lost it. I loved the characterization of all the new characters especially Phillippa, I think that we all know someone like her who attracts men without knowing how or wanting to. I can relate to Anne in this book. This book is thoroughly enjoyable and you not regret reading it. If you still want more Anne after reading this book, you should read all of the other Anne books (the next is Anne of Windy Poplars) and the Chronicles of Avonlea (it includes several stories which include Anne in them: The Herring of Ludovic, The Winning of Lucinda, etc.) I hope that you will love it as much as I did!
