REVIEW OF EL JUEGO DEL HATER 4YOU2

- I downloaded a Kindle sample and found it both engaging and informative enough to go ahead with purchasing (minutes ago)....

to accompany my recent purchase of a bread machine. Something's awry, at least with my copy. The pages are NOT numbered, and neither are page numbers given in the index. How could this be allowed to happen?

- Bought this to read with a young person with a sensitive heart, and glad I read it first. The author ruins the fun of the book because the dog dies. OK, I know loss is part of life, but there is such a trend today to make everything so "realistic" that warm stories are not warm any more and peaceful thoughts (especially if reading at bedtime) are ruined, that readers should be aware that this book may be disappointing to young children. I loved the idea that it is written very much in poem - good poem. But won't share it. What a shame the author did not think more about this, or if she did, that she decided she needed to include a grisly accident, sadness, and the dog's death in the mix.
