REVIEW OF PRINCIPLES OF FINANCE SCOTT

BESLEY

- Really enjoyed this book. The story flows well. The characters developed through the story , and kept my interest. I want to read more by Cullum.
- I have always loved books that keep you up all night reading when you should be sleeping.Eragon is definitely one of those books, I enjoyed every page. The story is of a 15 year old boy named Eragon who finds an amazing, big, blue stone one day in the forest while hunting. He brings the stone home hoping to sell it to the traders in the fall for food. One night Eragon is awakened by noise coming from the stone, next thing you know a dragon is hatched. Eragon secretly cares for the dragon till one day these magical creatures named Ra'zac show up. One night while Eragon is out the Ra'zac come to his home and kill his family while burning down his farm, and thats when the excitement begins. Eragon and his dragon go through a series of adventures that keep you on your toes dying to see what will happen next. Therefore I recommend this book to anyone looking for a good fictional novel to read.
