REVIEW OF PDF DOWNLOAD FOR

- My main problem with this book is that it takes Saul's POV the entire time, and to be honest, his need to contradict himself all the time just annoys the heck out of me and takes up too much space. I'm surprised Saul has a guardian angel at all actually. Narlh is the best reason to keep reading. And how stupid is Saul to never realize that Matt is the Lord Wizard of Merovence despite being told that at least 5 times in 3 days??? That one fact alone nearly made me stop altogether, till I realized Matt had to show up sooner or later so I kept on.

- How fun to really relax and curl up with a book that is so thoughtfully written and out loud laughable. Keeley is so easy to cheer for and yet her relationships are so realistically complex that the book keeps you enthralled as to what she will do next. As a fellow Midwesterner, with a 5-year-old son, I could totally relate on many levels. The characters and scenes are so vividly described that you really believe that if you went to Hawaii you might just run into Keeley and the others on the beach. This book will make a great Hollywood movie.
