REVIEW OF LG MONITOR GUIDE

- Sullivan's Law was well worth the read. Carolyn is a believable character that we can all relate to. As her life becomes intertwined with other characters we feel her strength's and weaknesses . It is great when you discover the family life continues in the second Sullivan's novel.Despair for Carolyn when her brother is accused of murder. Another great read on it's own.
- I took the exam and I passed it. However, my passing grade had nothing to do with this book. The content they review is hardly mentioned in the test and the practice exam is nothing like the actual exam. Save your money and review what you already have, this book is not worth $1.
