REVIEW OF BMC DIESEL ENGINES

- Anyone who's seen the film most likely remember it for Marlon Brando's character Stanley screaming for his wife in an alley, "Stella!" They remember the anguish in his face, his turgid stance, his primal yells for the woman he loves. This is a very well written play. The story is about Blanch Dubois, a southern belle who comes to live with her sister Stella. Blanch immerses herself into a fantasy world with a "paper moon", not coming to terms with her diminishing looks. No one suspects her except for Stella's husband, Stanley, who at first sight, doesn't take well to Blanch. Williams writes with starkness but maintains his lyricism. Reiterated, an excellent play.

- I saw this book on Top 5 on the Food Channel. That show (originally broadcast Nov. 10) listed the top five give-away premiums as 5) Crackerjacks; 4) S&H Green Stamps; 3) Bazooka Bubblegum comics; 2) Breakfast Cereal toys; and the #1 giveaway as Kiddie Meal Toys! Top 5 interviewed Mr. Sodaro, and he spoke rather eloquently about Fast food toys, their history, and why we all love them so much. Needless to say, he goes into greater detail into all of this in his book. Great stuff I highly recommend it!SpyderB0y
