REVIEW OF FINANCIAL MARKETS AND INSTITUTIONS SOLUTIONS MANUAL FABOZZI

- The first four books were excellent, even better than Tolkein. In the 'Wheel Of Time' series Jordan shows that he is the master of creating a fantasy

'universe'. Unfortunately the weath of absorbing detail means that the plot starts to grind to a halt, especially so in 'aCoS' (the timespan of the book is only two weeks). If he continues his trend it seems that it will be another 3-4 books before he can even contemplate finishing. The crunch point is that the story showed that Jordan has no idea how to end his epic series and even more important is the fact that aCoS was published in 1996 and the release date for the 8th book is pencilled in at 3rd Q. 1998. Does this mean that Jordan will give up the series as a project to difficult to bother to complete?

- Braids are pulled. Skirts are smoothed. Men are degraded. The three ta'veren are clueless about women. Rand has temper tantrums. Lews Therin cackles madly in the background. The quest for enchanted tupperware continues. Clothes are described in excruciating detail. The required number of Forsaken is killed. Despite these things, some good did happen in this book. It wasn't nearly as slow as book 6. I almost cried from joy last book when they discovered Traveling, no more month long journeys! I was also overjoyed when Elayne and Nynaeve finally began to grow some sense. Adviendha is having a good effect on them. Some of the same phrases are used constantly, do you know how many times Nynaeve pulls her braid and girls smooth their skirts? Talk about irksome. The constant description of clothes is still incredibly annoying. I think the guy wants to be a fashion designer. The World of Dreams was created simply so the he could describe dresses. hem, moving on. Plot does manage to progress. Another Forsaken was killed. Bet ya didn't see that coming! We can probably predict how many books there will be based off the number of forsaken. The thing in this book that bothered me the most was definitely the Whitecloaks/Morgase. We didn't need to know all the political currents of the whitecloaks if they're all killed by the Seanchan! One chapter would have been enough. Many subplots have not been wrapped up, and instead continue to grow. Ah well. Good, entertaining books, but not prime literature.
