REVIEW OF LATIHAN MATEMATIK TINGKATAN 4 MATHEMATICS FORM 4

- Those with a conservative perspective on history, the future, and life in general will learn a lot from Dr. Sowell's offering. The same scholarly approach as found in his earlier work (Vision of the Anointed, etc.) is found in this book. Sad that those who most need to understand such work won't read it.

- Mr. Sowell seems convinced that a typical person's positions on various political topics are in fact dictated by relatively few basic assumptions which the person holds. That is, three or four basic "truths" which you hold will in turn govern your views on dozens of other policy issues. He makes a very readable and very convincing case, illustrating how this plays out in many of today's "hot" political issues. This concept - that a few basic assumptions, or one's "vision," drives political views - is one he returns to again and again in his books. In fact, though I enjoyed Vision of the Anointed and Cosmic Justice, I found them somewhat redundant. This book treatment of the topic; I'm glad I read it seems to be a more fundamental first.
