REVIEW OF THE AASHTO LRFD BRIDGE DESIGN SPECIFICATIONS SECTION 5

- I enjoy a good love story but this was ridiculous. The damned female thought she was flawless. I mean no problems at all and got away with everything. She was supposed to be helping the man but in my eyes caused more trouble than she was worth. She was not a very likeable creature at all because she was so selfish. She thought everything she did was for a good cause. Who in their right mind brings a prostitute to live under their roof who promptly embarrasses almost the whole dinner party by showing them the gifts they gave her. Must I add that they were married, and then she had the nerve to get mad at her husband because he was mad? SERIOUSLY??? I stopped reading. I tried to give it a chance but it was not worth it.

- I laughed, I cried, I got angry, and I loved this book. I will keep it a long time. Julia was just the type of woman that Robert needed to help him win his inheritance, but my heart went out to Nick. He was about to be left with nothing and he could see Julia's influence on Robert. He thought he had no other choices. I hope we hear more about Nick.
