REVIEW OF AVIATION MANAGEMENT GUIDE

- Gerald Durrell is my most favorite naturalist author ever. He has made my life a joy. It is like having George Carlin in a book without the filth. You want to laugh, buy and read all of his books. Oh and you may appreciate the creatures who really own the Earth.
- Sullivan's Law was well worth the read. Carolyn is a believable character that we can all relate to. As her life becomes intertwined with other characters we feel her strength's and weaknesses . It is great when you discover the family life continues in the second Sullivan's novel.Despair for Carolyn when her brother is accused of murder. Another great read on it's own.
