REVIEW OF MAJALAH POPULAR EDISI DESEMBER 2016 INDONESIAIGO COM

- I've just discovered the Angelique series (reading Angelique in Barbary just this minute) and I cannot believe such a brilliant series is out of print in the USA! Angelique: The Marquise of Angels is the first book of this series, and is about the childhood and first marriage of one of literatures greatest heroines, Angelique. The copy I read was actually an old library copy of it, and it was titled Angelique and combined this book and Road to Versailles as one. The Angelique books are excellent historical fiction and both Golons (Anne and Serge) were born storytellers. The Marquise of Angels is my favorite book of the series so far. Its really brought to life a time period I knew very little about, 1600s France. This book has everything. Intrigue, suspense, romance, action, wonderful historical detail, great and memorable characters, the works. I also love how Golon brings to life historical figures. There's so many memorable scenes in just this one book, my favorite scene is probably Angelique and the poison (I won't give it away!) Like another reviewer has said, it is definitely a very cool scene. I just can't understand why these books are out of print, they are quality fiction! There's 63 reviews for this book on Amazon, a lot of books that are in print don't get that many! And all of them are positive five star reviews too! I know they did put the first 2 books in print again a few years ago, as special large print editions but a lot of people (myself included) don't like large print. If only they would put the whole series out again (regular print) and get the last three books translated, I'd be a happy camper...

- you'll still need to get more books but this one shows you charms and spells and crafts you can use along with sabbat ritual yes it's a bit hard to read at first but it doesn't take away from the awesome work
