REVIEW OF TRADING UP CANDACE BUSHNELL

- It was very well written, with imagery so vivid that it was at times disturbing. However, the ending ruined the entire book for me. I had never read anything by Atwood before, and I never will again. What a letdown!

- As Shakespeare once observed, "What is past is prologue"--and certainly this holds true for Margaret Atwood's haunting novel. Containing passages that are harrowing in their stark, matter-of-fact delivery, "The Handmaid's Tale" is an almost overwhelming book which calls to mind the oppression suffered by Afghanistan women under the Taliban regime. A book of fierce power.
