REVIEW OF ANSIBLE FOR DEVOPS SECURE SHELL SOFTWARE

- This is a WONDERFUL novel. I wanted to savor every page. Taylor, a young woman from Kentucky leaves home to start anew in another part of the country. She leaves her mother, who has been loving and supporting to her and her life as a nutter

(one who picks walnuts and shells them to earn money for school clothes and always has blackened fingers from shelling the nuts). Along the way, an Indian woman gives the young woman a child who has been badly physically and sexually abused. Taylor and the child, who she calls Turtle, settle in Tucson. There they meet LouAnn and Mattie, who own 'Jesus is Lord Used Tires', and is involved in the Sanctuary Movement for Immigrants to the United States. The story revolves around their relationships and growth. The dialogue is lyrical and hard hitting. Kingsolver has a knack for regional nuances.

- A good relaxing Sunday afternoon read. I read it from start to finish without having to get up. Enjoyed the story.
