REVIEW OF DUCATI MONSTER 695 2007 SERVICE MANUAL

- As the past reviewer I did not arrive to the page with THE END printed on it, and I really hate to be unable to finish a book. Anecdote aside, I am aware that my review lacks proper grounds, but since there is so much to read and too little time, I strongly suggest you to look for other works of this author. During the first chapter I seems to be going great, the drama was cleaver and catchy. But suddenly in the second chapter it just stops and all the events seem to be going nowhere. Besides the construction of the language is boring and confusing. It feels like the author worked in this novel for a while, then left it during some years locked in a closet and one fine day decided to complete it, but without being at ease doing so.

- I am often asked what I studied in my journey of self-discovery that led to my book, audio book and workshops, Managing Thought: How Do Your Thoughts Rule Your World?. I explain that many roads lead to Rome. On the psychological path, The Farther Reaches of Human Nature significantly influenced me. Maslow wondered why we study what we don't want, sickness, and instead studied what we do want, health. Maslow's Hierarchy of Needs and his teachings on self-actualization explain man's expansive nature and our genuine interest in expanding our level of consciousness and becoming fully human.
