REVIEW OF NAPOLEON A LIFE ANDREW ROBERTS PDF

- While I have not completed the book yet, I find it profound in the way that C.S. Lewis once again links the spiritual with the fantasy. It is amazing his insight into human character. I think all who read it will enjoy the light easy manner in which he grips you and keeps you wanting more. Enjoy.
- Hyams has done his homework with this project. He accumulated material from a wealth of contributors including personalities from Newman High School as well as the University of Tennessee. However, one can tell, after reading the first chapter, this is Hyams, formerly asst. sports editor of the Knoxville News-Sentinel, first foray into penning a novel length book. The content reads like an extended feature story one would find in the local newspaper's sports section. Specifically, the content is choppy and dry. There is no flow, and it is difficult to remain engaged. If I were to assign a grade to this work, I would give it a D+
