REVIEW OF I DRIVE SAFELY QUIZ ANSWERS CHAPTER 5 MAIHAN

- OH GOSH! This is the best! I'm thirteen, and I had just recently finished Wuthering Heights when I decided to pick this up. I loved it so much! It's a really intense, frightening, startling, & romantic story, one that I think everyone should know about! So anyways, Jane starts out as a little girl of ten, and lives an unhappy life with her dreadful aunt. She is sent away to Lowood, a school of which she attends for eight more years. After two years of teaching there, she decides she needs a change. Jane is accepted to be a governess at Thornfield Hall, and then she meets Mr. Rochester! The good part starts! The two form a strong friendship, and go through the terrors of Thornfield's mystery villain together. Then, they fall in love. But, a secret that surrounds Rochester separates Jane from him, and then she leaves. She finds long-lost family, and is proposed an offer of marriage by St. John, who wanted her to be a missionary with him. Well, does Jane accept? Or return to her beloved Mr. Rochester? Find out for yourself, and read this fantastic novel!

- Young Jane has a tough childhood growing up with her cousins and aunt after her parents passed away. Treated like a servant, and not like a member of the family, Jane felt she was all alone in the world, and it doesn't make it better when she's sent away to school. First as a student, and then as a teacher/guvernness, but neither is like a dance on roses. Then her skills bring her to a mysterious and quite arrogant Mr. Rochesters house where she becomes the guvernness...This book illustrates very well the passionate love from a woman's point of view. No longer is the female character a background character, but becomes independant with feelings, passion, integrety and a strong mind. The book is very realistic, and you can easily identify yourself with the feelings that the main character has. Her devotion for what she loves, and her effort to make the best out of her life. Charlotte Bront, who first published this book under a pseudonym, is probably the most well-known of the Bront sisters who all died very young. Jane Eyre is a brilliant book of a woman who can be a role model for young girls of today. Her determination to make life the best for herself as no one else seems to bother, and her passion for what she loves. One of the first romance novels written. A true classic that I very much enjoyed to read, and I'm certain I will read it many more times. Even my friend, who doesn't like reading very much, totally loved this book. I warmly recommend this to anyone who loves a good novel, and most certainly to young girls. I think the language might be a little advanced for anyone younger than 16.
