REVIEW OF DHET PAST PAPER MEMO

- This is the story of how Bilbo Baggins obtained the powerful ring and found sources of bravery and courage within himself through his adventures with the dwarves and Gandalf the wizard. I was spellbound within a few pages and was astounded at how energetic and compelling the story is. And this was published in 1937! Finally "middle earth" - the environment in which the story is set, cannot get any more interesting and exciting, although it is bleak at times. But, remember its all in the imagination. Every reader will probably imagine the story in a different light. That's the best part - the book's an experience and no two experiences are the same. The movie - now that's a completely different matter...
