REVIEW OF FUNDAMENTALS OF METAL CUTTING AND MACHINE TOOLS

- This book opened my eyes to issues every man faces every day of his life and must deal with to not just survive but to have great success. This is a must read without a doubt, I could hardly wait to read each chapter and put into practice every recommendation as soon as possible. Few books every written for men by a man come close to waking up the powerful, successful man lying dormant in all men.

- Doing one thing and doing it well is often better than doing many things either averagely or poorly. The Pie and Pastry Bible does one thing and it does it extremely well. Rose Levy Beranbaum breaks down all the secrets to making pie and pastry as well as many variations. Too many cookbooks are pretty but not really informative. This one is not one of those, it will get constant use over the years in my kitchen. I know this because it will take me a long time to work through all the recipes. It will be worth it though.
