REVIEW OF VDA 6 3 PROCESS AUDIT

- you know, i went to school for two years in the silicone valley and whenever I tell people about what I learned from this book and the stories, people REALLY have a hard time believing me!That's how much of this corruption has been swept under the rug! If you've been wondering about this, READ IT! IT's not that hard to read. I had to read it for a class and I actually felt engaged in most of the chapters. It's amazing how much corruption and oppression there is in such a "clean silicone valley work place" and in the USA. Hard to give much away without talking about the whole book but I think you will enjoy it if you even have the SLIGHTEST interest in this matter. I read this book for an Intro to Ethnic Studies class. Hope this helps, Daniel

- The only thing I really have to say is let us not forget the words in the Declaration of Independence.....In Congress, July 4, 1776. The UNANIMOUS

DECLARATION of the 13 States of America: When in the Course of human events it becomes necessary for one people to dissolve the political bands which have connected them with another and to assume among the powers of the earth, the separate and equal station to which the "Laws of Nature" and of "Nature's God" entitle them, a decent respect to the opinions of mankind requires that they should declare the causes which impel them to the separation. Notice how it doesn't say the "Laws of the Bible" or of "the Biblical God". The founders did not base the Declaration of Independence on the principals of Christianity. Thomas Paine knew what he was talking about. This is undoubtedly the best book written to open the eyes of the ignorant regarding religion. Some say it takes "faith" to believe. Well doesn't that mean in order to believe it you have to stop using your brain? Paine didn't need "faith" to understand the creator. He understood the creator by the "facts" of what he saw in "nature." Reading this book "saved" me from the internal turmoil of "religion" and for that I will be forever grateful to him. Knowledge and Reason were given to us by the "creator" and I doubt very much that the "creator" would punish us for using them.
