REVIEW OF CHAPTER 8 FORM K TEST

- (...)The book Beowulf: A New Telling is a great book. I read it in my English class. I would recommend it to 6th graders and up. The book is a myth about a hero that doesn't think about himself as a great hero. He kills the ratched monster, Grendel. Grendel kills people and eats them bones and everything. Beowulf hears about the horrid monster and goes and fights him. Beowulf doesn't use a sword. Beowulf grabs Grendel's arm and doesn't let go. Grendel shakes and jerks his arm. Finally Grendel's arm rips out of place. Grendel's mother (whom is worse then Grendel) comes to avenge Grendel's death. Beowulf speaks to her his ords so sharp they peirce her heart. Well I'm not going to spoil the story for any one who hasn't read it yet. Take it fome me it's a great book. In fact it's one of the best books I've read in a long time.

- This is the first in the corum series, it introduces the characters, and sets up the plot for the series of six books. highly recommende
