REVIEW OF COMPARATIVE ADJECTIVES STUDENT S NAME LEVEL BASIC 03

- What more can be said about this masterpiece by Tom Wolfe that hasn't already been said. Since Mr. Wolfe has a new book out, I decided to re-read this novel since I first read it in 1988. Its impact has not lessened. I still live in New York City and things here change but in many ways still remain the same. There are still many who live here in the underside of the New York City "Renaissance" and the economic divide is still steep. Who can forget his Social X-Rays? Bravo!

- The book puts the reader on the wagon trains and provides great insight into the day to day travails of the Oregon Trail travelers.
