Out now: the new book by Dr Fern Riddell, a powerful and entertaining history of sex. _____ These are the facts: throughout history human beings have had sex. Sexual culture did not begin in the sixties. It has always been celebrated, needed, wanted and desired part of what it means to be human. So: what can learn by looking at the sexual lives of our ancestors? What does it tell us about our attitudes and worries today, and how can the past teach us a better way of looking forward? In this wide-ranging and powerful new history of sex, Dr Fern Riddell will uncover the sexual lives of our ancestors and show that, just like us, they were as preoccupied with sexual identities, masturbation, foreplay, sex, deviance; facing it with the same confusion, joy and accidental hilarity that we do today. Sex: Lessons from History is a revealing and fascinating look at how we've always been obsessed with how sex makes us who we are. _____

REVIEW OF CMZ 900 YOKOGAWA GYRO MAINTENANCE MANUAL

- Unicornis is a mind-blowing book, I first read it when I was in the 9th grade, in 1991. I borrowed it from my local Library, and since returning it, I have never been able to find it since. It is a beautifully written book, with luscious illustrations and captures uniquely that delicious sense of majik and mystery. I wrote down the poem from the book, and had memorised it, so for the past nine years I have been able to recite it and hope that I may find this book again someday. Well worth the effort of searching for, trust me on this!

- I first ate food made from Peter Gordon's Sugar Club Cookbook at a friend's house. Our friend impressed us with these unusual junxtapositions: scallops in a sauce made from chilis, garlic, lemongrass, and cilantro, corn fritters with creme fraiche, plaintain fritters with olive tamenade, and rich chocolate mousse cake flavored with anise. I had to copy down the recipes and make them for myself straight away to fill the fix I got. When I make people dinner using Sugar Club recipes now, I watch the same thing happen: they are impressed at my skills, shocked by the incredible flavors, and have to have the recipes. The recipes are simple enough that even my kitchen-dyslexic husband can make them on his own, despite some telling you to use charcoals to grill (not easy indoors in the winter) and making your own polenta, etc. But you can easily figure out shortcuts, or in my case, learn to make polenta. I haven't made it to the Sugar Club, but can make these posh and exotic meals at home and impress my dinner guests without an incredible amount of effort. Bravo, Chef Peter Gordon!
