REVIEW OF ACCOUNTS PAST PAPERS O LEVEL

• I love "The Princess Bride" as a movie, so I thought I'd like the book. I was so wrong. I slogged through it, hoping it might get better, and was disappointed the whole way through. Maybe someone else might find its sexist tone ironic or funny. I found it distasteful.

• I came to this book after already having seen the movie. I couldn't imagine that I could love the book as much as the movie, since the movie was so incredible, but I did. The book is JUST AS GOOD as the movie, which is high praise (for both, really!). This is a fantastic story, full of adventure and danger and humor. I recommend it highly for any child who is old enough to sit through a book without pictures - 7 and up or so, depending on the kid. There are a few scary parts, and a bad guy dies, but there isn't anything that should give a child nightmares. One note: This edition of the book has a VERY LENGTHY introduction, which is great if you're already a fan of this story. But if you're new to the story, SKIP the intro. A kid isn't going to care about it at all and it might even turn him off to continuing on to the actual story. If you're the parent (or just a regular adult who is reading the story for enjoyment!), the intro will be much more interesting to you AFTER you've read and loved the book.
