REVIEW OF OMR SHEET FOR JSC EXAM

- Lilac Spring is just as compelling as her two previous novels. This is the story of Cherish (daughter of a very successful boat builder in the small community Haven's End Maine) and Silas (her father's apprentice in the business). They are briefly introduced as children and then the story resumes as Cherish returns from her education as a young woman. She has loved Silas from childhood but Silas is very aware of his place in society and in their household. He has had an emotionally barren adolescence and really made his love of building boats his world (as it has been). Cherish has a strong faith in spite of her pampered childhood, she is impetuous, vivacious, a little spoiled but overall just innocent and loving. She expects Silas to share her faith since they've gone to the same church since childhood but in reality it is only head knowledge. Ms Morren very skillfully matures these characters and creates a very interesting story. We also meet Capain Phelps and Ginny briefly from her previous book.

- I've used about 30 of these country guides and they will always be my first choice. This gave me very useable and current information for my trip. I like the information about the museums and Tivoli Gardens as well as transportation options. I never would have gone to the Louisiana Museum without it. Written in a pleasant style.
