REVIEW OF BBSIPITT2007INFORMATIONDOCUMENT

- If I had to give up all of my scores of gardening books but one, this would be the one I'd keep!! Rosemary Verey is a master of gardening and her ability to create exceptional combinations of plants is unsurpassed. This is what she does in this book. She combines plants - annuals, perennials, shrubs, trees - into groups of exceptional beauty. You can find a color combination that delights you visually. If you actually plant her combination you can also have fragrance, four season interest, and solutions to problem sites. Her combinations - and the photographs of her plantings - are so satisfying to peruse all year round. You'll be motivated and can have the most exciting garden ever!
- This is one of my favorite Crusie books ever. The story is fun and fresh. The hero is deliciously masculine and protective without being overbearing to the point of disgust. The heroine is someone I could relate to really well. The best thing about this re-release is the new cover. This cover represents the tone of the story much better than the paperback cover. Overall, a great book with a fancy new cover. I highly recommend it!
