REVIEW OF UNIDAD 3 LECCION 2 GRAMATICA A ANSWERS

- Thomas Paine in his work considers Christianity as pure myth. His reasons for doing so are rather weak as he attempts to validate his work by apparent contadictions. Paine and others of his ilk (Voltaire, Rosseau) embraced the French Revolution and its logical conclusion in the Reign of Terror. The madness only stopped when Napoleon ended the revolution. So much for "Free" thinking men who believe that man is the measure of all things.

- I loved this book, the writer has such a wonderful way of making the past come alive. I am not from the US myself and I felt that through this book I could take a glimpse at what life must have been like for the writer. Great read.
