REVIEW OF AFTERSHOCK ITA SYLVIA DAY CVTOUCHORE

- This was the first title I have read from the author and after seeing all of the reviews, I somewhat expected this to be one of the those laugh out loud books. With a few exceptions, it wasn't. I was still entertained by the accounts of this very unique family and was able to relate to various pieces of the different stories. I dont regret picking up this book up but I I think I was expecting more.

- Sedaris broke into the big time with his bestseller Me Talk Pretty One Day, which does deliver more laugh-out-loud moments in a strictly quantitative sense, but Dress Your Family offers even more insight into the lives of the weird and wacky Sedaris clan. We're also treated to more time with David's boyfriend Hugh. No review can accurately portray the witticisms of a master humorist such as Sedaris, but allow me to provide one short quote: [p. 140] "Real love amounts to withholding the truth, even when you're offered the perfect opportunity to hurt someone's feelings."
