REVIEW OF MY DINNER WITH ANDRE A SCREENPLAY

- Living near the border there's always talk of concern for the country with illegal immigrants crossing over. What you don't hear is how arduous the trip is for some of those people. You don't realize what they're sacrificing sometimes when they take the risk of trusting someone to lead them to freedom (through a freaking desert no less). This book was not only exceptionally well written and intriguing, it gave a glimpse of what happens probably more often than not, to people looking for something better, using up all their savings to try to find a better life for them and their families.

- Personally, I enjoyed this book. It was pretty exciting. There are many exciting things that happen, like a car chase, a smoke screen, a dying man, mysterious robberies, a hidden tunnel, an eerie ghost, a disappearing floor, a plane crash, a sabotaged boat, and a strange message. All in all it was a pretty good book.
