REVIEW OF TRAVEL MANAGEMENT USER MANUAL SAP

- Grayling, the editor, appears to be the successor of Scruton at Birkbeck College. I find him supremely fitted to put together such a tour d'horizon of contemporary philosophizing, albeit happily restricted to the analytic tradition. The articles are largely bereft of Continental mambo-jumbo, and refreshingly competent across the board; therefore, the two volumes may serve as a major reference work on any shelf, as well as an apt introduction and stimulation for serious college students.

- In my own genealogy research I had a brick wall that took me 30 years to break down. Once I did I was able to trace back into information found in this book. I do not descend from Perry Young's branch of Youngs, but his research does delve into my Young line. It is invaluable to me.
