REVIEW OF CAMBRIDGE MOVERS EXAM PAST PAPERS

- If, like me, you've read a lot of books in the "chick lit" genre, then you've probably read this story before: woman loses husband and pines for him to come back; woman begins to realize that her marriage wasn't quite what she thought it was; woman starts to enjoy her new-found independence; and finally, woman finds a surprising new love. THE STARTER MARRIAGE pretty much follows this formula, but what it lacks in originality it makes up for in warmth and wit. One added twist here is that the woman in question, Tess, joins a divorce support group, and the although most of the book is told in Tess's first-person voice, each of the eight group sessions are presented from the perspective of William, the group leader. One of the group participants, Carol-Ann, lends quite a bit of humor to the book, and I found myself laughing out loud here and there. Otherwise, the story is somewhat predictable and even a little corny at times, but that doesn't make it bad. Overall, I enjoyed this quick read and would definitely recommend it to others who are interested in this genre.

- If you ever really wondered whats behind all of the numbers this is the book that you want. Very easy to read and explains everything you wanted to know about Math.
