REVIEW OF KOHLER ENGINES DIESEL

- My review is based on the content.... it's mostly about "how to" write the "correct way", and the current "rules" of literature. I'm sorry, but times have changed, and some of the things expressed in this book are simply not said/written in modern society.

- (Just to be fair, I am not judging the entire book; I am only talking about few pages from here and there within the book that I did read... if there was a least one unauthentic story every few pages that I did read, I can not imagine the rest of the book to be any better)...I purchased the book from the great comments, and as I was scanning through the pages (before reading the book), & I found unauthentic stories. One as an example, on page 29, she claims that Allah told Prophet Mohammad in a Hadith "were it not for you, I would not have created the universe". ?? That goes against the principle of Islam... and it is unauthentic. Also, I found her when she was explaining about the when Prophet Mohammed Took over Mecca after they were thrown out and (to the nearest meaning to what she wrote) "Prophet Mohammed picked him and got Bilal on top of Kabaa and that Bilal saw the havens." I don't understand where the author got this information from. I want to advice my dear respected author to please review your work with a Sunni scholar. I am sorry but I had to give it a one star.
