REVIEW OF HANDBOOK OF INTERVIEW RESEARCH

- Romona's friends called her a pest. She was a bad little girl and got in lots of trouble. One day she got in trouble with her teacher Mrs. Binney. Then Romana didn't return to school. Will Romana ever return to school?

- Ramona the Pest is simply about a 5-year-old kid being a pest, right? Well, it's more than that. The author does take us into the mind of a kindergartener, but Beezus (the oldest sister) has a reason for calling Ramona a pest. She is! First of all, Ramona is spoiled and thinks that everyone's against her, and anytime she wants something, she knows--if she cries--her mother will listen to her. Ramona Quimby is a brat and I'm glad to see she's grown-up, because Ramona Quimby is nothing but a whiner and spoiled brat! Consider this before handing it to your child. I'm 13...I know these things. My little sister agrees with me.(Remember, this is just an opinion)
