REVIEW OF BANKRUPTCY LAW AND PROCEDURE FLITBY

- When I read this Book I was amazed! I could not believe all the things that were mentioned in it. Literally the whole of the universe is discussed! Many aspects that you only hear about are discussed in great detail. This book is what got me started on the self-educating experience on our home the Universe. I will greatly advise any one who wants to jump onto the modern physics band wagon to read this book in the first place, its a great modern physics 101 type of a book. I loved it! You'll love it too I can (almost) guarantee that!

- I read this book as part of my research for a paper on the history of copyright policy. I found Vaidhyanathan to be both well-informed and a good writer. Unlike many resources on this topic, Copyrights and Copywrongs was quite interesting to read. Vaidhyanathan's book is both insightful and entertaining. If you've ever wondered how in the world something like Copyright policy could be interesting or relevant, you should pick up this book. Once you do, you'll almost certainly keep reading until you've reached the end. If you want to learn about the history of Copyright policy and how it affects you, you should definitely read this book. ...
