REVIEW OF BIOPROCESSING PIPING AND EQUIPMENT DESIGN A COMPANION FOR THE ASME BPE STANDARD WILEY ASME PRESS SERIES

• In The Giver there is a boy named Jonas. He is eleven year old boy that lives in a world which is made perfect in everyway, no hunger, no pain, on war and no danger. When he turns 12 he is given the most respected job of them all, the Giver. This job consists of holding all of the memories of the people. Through many stages of his training he becomes more mature and relizes what the world is all about...happyness and love. Soon he has to make many vital desicions which change the course of his life.I recomend this book so anyone that is looking for a suspensfully, a sit at the edge kinda story that will stun you more that anything realistically now. I hope you understand this novel and really get to love it. Some times we take things for granite and dont realize it. This book points out what life would be like with having nothing, no emotions and no feelings toward anything.by: spencer hockey

• Jonas, a 12 year old boy, knows nothing of the horrors of the past. He lives in a world of sameness, no colors, no pain, no weather. He knows nothing of the choices he could have. That is, until he is assigned as the Receiver of Memory. All "twelves" are assigned a job at the annual ceremony. He was assigned the most important job there was. He was to know of the horrors of the past and of the joys. The Giver was to show him all of this.This book is solid. No complaints, no questions. Lois Lowry has done a great job of filling in the details. Take the time to read this book rather than reading it just to read it. It is well worth anyone's time.
