REVIEW OF STIGMA NOTES ON THE MANAGEMENT OF SPOILED IDENTITY ERVING GOFFMAN

- I am quite surprised by the negative reviews. This is one of the few opportunities we can get so up close and personal with a renowned speculator. Come on give that guy a break, just because he blew up his account doesn't mean there's no merit in what he says. In fact, this book, along with market wizards, is one of my faves on finance and investment.This book is about the life of a speculator! And we all know that trading is not just about methodology and psychology.To be good at it, it has to be as large as life itself. Vic brings us through the world from his perspective as a speculator. I haven't seen another book that approaches financial speculation from such a multidisciplinary perspective.This book is definitely one of those that deserves to be read over and over again...as I'm sure new insights will be gained with each reading. For those who have put away the book without appreciating the life of a speculator, u don't know what u r missing!

- ...Resulting in Death is an engaging mystery with just enough red herrings to keep it interesting without becoming too convoluted.This is the first book in many months to keep me up past midnight, unwilling to close it until I had read to the end and found out what happened!Lynn Fulton's characters, her plot, and her unique style make this a highly recommended holiday read! I will definitely be looking for more books from this author.
