REVIEW OF THE DEVELOPING PERSON THROUGH THE LIFE SPAN 9TH

- The Socrates Cafe is a poorly written book. Christopher Phillips was too busy using fancy words to realize that the reader has to spend 15 seconds on words just to pronounce them correctly. I like his ideas but he came up short putting them into words! Using fancy language is not always a good thing. The best writing is writing that is clear and precise.

- I love this book, I have been painting for about a year and decided to start drawing my own pictures. It takes you through all the necessities. It may also be excellent for the experienced drawer, but can't make that statement yet as I am not there yet, but this book is helping me to.
