REVIEW OF 300 CROCHET STITCHES

- I've just finished reading this book, and have decided it is the best book I've ever read. Tennessee Williams brings together Stella, Stanley - her brutish husband- and Blanche Dubois, Stella's sister. Blanche comes to live with Stella and Stanley after she is kicked out of a different town for being a flirt. Stella who is in denial about this tries her best to be a good host and comfort Blanche. Stanley is more wise than Stella and does research. Through a whirlwind of the blue piano that plays by their street, and poker nights, Blanche realizes she is no longer the sophisticated southern Belle she made herself out to be. Basically, Blanche goes crazy and was "forced" to deal with Stanley the way Stella has for the while they've been together. I love this book because it's like nothing I've ever read before.

- This is a practical book that guides you through the first number of years of parenting. The author comes across genuine and "real." I've read it several times and use it as a reference book!
