REVIEW OF SECTION 34 2 REVIEW ANIMAL BODIES WEBLY

- This is a year by year by year by year (!) review of Tar Heel basketball with Dean's life prior to Carolina thrown in for good measure.(He actually had one). It makes no effort to be balanced. You see,

Dean never made a mistake, had a player who flunked out or got in trouble- ever! Down in Chapel Hill, life goes on and the Heels keep winning. Phooey! I'll take Bobby Knight throwing chairs and tantrums anyday. However, if you're from Carolina or a UNC alum, ignore this review and buy the book right away. You'll never notice the shortcomings. Now, how about a bio of Dean's predecessor and mentor, Frank McGuire.(He first hired Dean as an assistant). That would be a story.

- First, this book is self indulgently long - her editor must have been afraid to ask her to cut some of the more being bits. Second, the proofreader must have fallen asleep from the dullness - here are two examples of silly errors that should have been caught before going to press:p. 266 "specialist boutique that might have the cane with the carved handle which that Carlene had in mind." - obviously, ms smith didn't know whether to use "which" or "that" so put both in!p. 287 "to laugh at the expensive pretension of bussing down Kingsmen" - look it up, please, "bussing" means "kissing"
