REVIEW OF TEACHING PROFESSION BY BILBAO

- If you like Western Romance you will love this book! Ms. Borcz has given us a fast-paced romance adventure that leads you on a chase in search of diamonds and love. What a combination! The story is well-written and packed with all the things you want in a Western including romance. Don't miss this one! Amelia Grey
- In 1994-95 I used to blow into NYC to have lunch with Michael Wolff every couple months. These meetings were great infusions of energy for me because the guy truly "got it" in a way that was rare back then -- and sadly still is. We stopped meeting after he took on an equity partner whose attitude toward the net I couldn't stomach. This outfit struck me as bad news and I told him so. About a year later, I heard Michael had bailed out of his own company, basically as a result of the head-on collision I had suspected was inevitable. I was deeply impressed. Personal integrity has not exactly become a commodity in this industry. While the book details an all-expense-paid trip to hell at the hands of the clueless and the venal, it's also a rolling-on-the-floor laughing-out-loud funny read. What a coup: the unvarnished truth as purest entertainment! Whether you were there for these events or not, it's hard to imagine you won't love the book. Unless, that is, you're among its targets. Well met; well deserved; well written and delicious. Five stars and clearly headed for the charts.
