REVIEW OF FREAK THE MIGHTY

- Opening this book to see the very same pictures I drooled over as a kid was a warm and fuzzy flashback to happier times. I have now purchased two so I can gift them to my sister and mother. Tried and true recipes that I will never get tired of making.

- I nearly fell over when I spied this book on the shelf at the local bookstore. What a wave of fragrant christmas cookie dough memories! My mother has the original 1963 book. Its pages are marked with baking stains and a green felt tip marker that indicates favorite recipes with "good" and "great". As children, my siblings and i would gather around this book, much like the Sears Christmas Wishbook, and choose the cookies we would help my mother bake that year. We also daydreamed about how this cookie and that bar would taste... and who could forget the sight of that gingerbread house with its gumdrop decorations and gobs of frosting. This year, I am ordering four copies of this book [as gifts from my mother] to us four kids who were swept away each of our childhood years by its spell and the magical aroma of an oven full of holiday treats.
