REVIEW OF MCCARTY MEIROWITZ SOLUTIONS POLITICAL GAME THEORY

- As I was writing in my journal with the informational facts about Death Valley, it's amazing how the Geologists knew the formation of the National Park. Those people knew where and how Death Valley was created. Not only by land and sea, even God himself made Death Valley a beautiful place. Yet, there are some parts that were deserted that made Death Valley forbidden, and mysterious. There is more to Death Valley that were undiscovered, I get the feeling that it should be televised and to be discovered.

- First things first. I am not a gigantic comics fan. I've never been to a comic book shop. I know the big names. Basically, if they had a live action TV show, I know them. So, my opinion is not as well-informed as that of some. Take this opinion for what it is worth since I am not a frequent reader of comics but it is the silliness involving Supergirl that this collection tries to correct. Big fans know what I'm talking about - Supergirl is dead, she's replaced by an ectoplasmic being who is called Supergirl, yadda, yadda, yadda. So, Supergirl from Krypton is re-introduced here as a concept. Thank goodness. The story itself is good, but not nearly as good as Volume #1 in this series. The art is interesting - the men are hyperdeveloped to the point of silliness (their suits look like they are painted on to professional bodybuilders) but the women are wonderful - this rendition of Wonder Woman is the best I've ever seen, including Linda Carter!
