- I chose this book for a young man who is just beginning to enjoy reading and has some seeing difficulties. It is a classic and can serve him for reading for some time to come.

- I agree with the many positive comments. This is a fascinating and entertaining history of one of TV's great institutions. You can either dip into it or, as I did, read it from cover to cover. There are many fascinating anecdotes, but also plenty of insights into the key participants. Warmly recommended.
