REVIEW OF HTML XHTML AND CSS SIXTH EDITION

- This review is for the Abridged Puffin Classics version, ISBN: 0-140-37353-5. This version has been abridged not so much for adults as for young readers. It is now appropriate for ages 13-15, I would say, or for advanced ESL learners. The abridgment reads naturally and flows well. Extraneous plot elements that Robin Waterfield decided to leave out have been completely left out, meaning that, at least as far as I was able to detect, no vestigial traces of the original plot lingering about to confuse you. All the much-ballyhooed references to lesbianism and drugs in Dumas's original have, it need hardly be said, been deleted. Also, Dantes doesn't curse God so much in this one (in the dungeon scene, I mean).

- I cannot compare this to any other translations, but I imagine this to be faithful to the text. It is a great, smooth read.
