REVIEW OF CAREER AND EMPLOYABILITY STANDARDS PDF MICHIGAN

- In the movie they left out the Zoo of death which would have made the video a whole lot better, because they would have seen how good prince humperdinck was of a tracker and the pit of despair was just to dull. The albino in the movie got knocked out and didnt help Inigo and Fezzik which didnt give any credit to the albino because he was always trying to help westley. prince humperdinck should have been a fat man with a bad temper and always looked mad because in the movie he was not fat and was not mad all the time.

- Wow, where do I begin? Being a big fan of the movie and critical of adaptations, this book was as close to perfect as you could possibly get! I absolutely loved it! The movie stays very faithful to the book; and the book is purely awesome. The book even contained the aspect that the story was being read to a child by an adult. Goldman took it even a step further and created an entire storyline outside of the actual Princess Bride story. The whole idea of abridging the "original" story by Morgenstern was fictitious, but it had me believing it was the truth. It wasn't until after finishing the book, I looked it up on the internet and found out it was fake; it was all part of the story. Very creative, I must say. Aside from that, the main story of The Princess Bride was exciting, funny, and touching. The characters were deep, witty, and likable. It contained a great balance of romance, action, suspense, and witty humor. If you enjoyed the movie, you'll cherish the book. It gives greater detail and background to various characters not seen in the movie. This has undoubtedly become my favorite book by far. To think another story could outdo it is absolutely.....INCONCEIVABLE!!!
