REVIEW OF PAPER 2H HIGHER TIER

- Father Greeley introduces us to new and captivating fictional (but don't we know real-life folks similiar?) Irish-Catholic families in Chicago and deftly interweaves them with suspense in Post World War II Germany. But, here's a WARNING I wish I would have known when I started this book: this is "Part One" of the saga. Unlike the Blackie Ryan or Nuala Ann books, it is NOT self-contained. One must read the 2d of this series, _Younger Than Springtime_, to have even a glimmer of how it all ends. Order both now, so you won't have to pester your Postperson to keep reading ;-) I hope, to complete the saga (still not wholly resolved at the end of _Springtime_), that there will be a _Summer_ and _Autumn_?

- If you have a Jewish/Christian path and are looking for a guide to manifesting things in your life, this is a powerful, but simple method. I experienced almost immediate results through the Psalms. If you find the Wicca and Pagan methods of manifestation too complicated or contrary to your beliefs, I highly recommend this book.
