REVIEW OF A COMMUNICATIVE GRAMMAR OF ENGLISH THIRD EDITION

• Have you ever imagined yourself in a "perfect" world? Where there is no war, battles, pain, suffering or even love. Well, in this science-fiction book The Giver by Lois Lowry, The main character, Jonas didn't have to imagine it, he lived in a perfect world. Jonas was pretty satisfied with his world. Although, Jonas lives in a "perfect" world, there are some good and bad things about this world. Jonas lives in a town where everything is controlled by the elders. The weather that happens in the world is controlled. Your future husband or wife is not up to you. Or even the food you eat, are chosen by the elders. The elders control everything. When someone turns 12 years old, the elders assign a job for that person. They will have to do this job for the rest of their lives. When Jonas turned 12 years old, the elders assigned him the next Receiver of Memory. With this job, Jonas will go through tough times. Jonas's teacher is The Giver. The Giver will give Jonas memories that have been lost in the community. Jonas has no clue what will happen. If you like or are learning about similes or metaphors I suggest you read The Giver. You should read The Giver because Lois Lowry uses a lot of similes and metaphors in the book. I think that this book was interesting and mysterious. When you read the book, a lot of questions pop into your head. But at the end you start to connect the dots. I think that Lois Lowry made this book to making your self believe in things that you think that will never be true.

• I like this book {The Giver} because its like a whole new world in our mind that we just dont know where it is. My favorierte charicter is Jonas because he is the star of the book is Jonas. Jonas is a smart young man that always likes goming up with ideas because he is very smart. I like jonas because he soo samrt and i think thats why he gets to be the reciver f memory. I can relate to Jonas because in the book Jonas is turning twelve and my birthday is coming up as I turn twelve. my secend part is in the book i lke aow lois lowwry is open ended i like how at the end of the end of the book she leaves it blank , i think thats cool. And Jonas has a sister and i have a sister to so thatscool to. I also like the giver because he is the most wise man in all of the very cood book.
