REVIEW OF BIBLIA REINA VALERA 1960 UNITED BIBLE SOCIETIES AMERICAS SERVICE CENTER

- I just loved all the irony in this book! Two boys, one an orthodox and one an unorthodox Jew, become good friends in New York City. They both are in truth unorthodox, but almost everything else about them is different. Danny, the son of a tzaddik, an orthodox rabbi, does not wish to continue the rabbi "dynasty". The other boy, Rueven, the son of a pro-Zionism demonstrator wishes to become a rabbi despite the fact that his father would prefer for him to be a university professor. Touching! Emotional! A true allegory as well!

- This book is one of the best books around today. I read it for a school assignment in tenth grade, and it is now one of my favourite books. Chaim Potok's writing is magnificent, and the theme of the book is universal. I would highly recommend this book to anyone.
