REVIEW OF MARCUS GARVEY AND THE BACK TO AFRICA MOVEMENT LUCENT

- At first I wondered how a long book (1,600 pages) written in the early 1900's could interest me. After a 100 pages, I found myself enjoying an unusual journey into the human psyche. This is not only a book about development of the musical artist, Jean-Christophe, but a poetic symphony on the many variations of human nature. Each character brings new insight into the understanding what it means to be human and offers beautiful phrases for us to explain our most complex thoughts and emotions. This is one the greatest books I have read.

- I found your new magnificent contract book! It is difficult to imagine how big a step this is for indie artist for now and in the future!
