REVIEW OF PAKISTAN STUDIES M A PART I

- very interesting and good. so many years and still true! looks like statistics never change. should be read by everyone.
- A mediocre story plagued by poor writing. The ending is too obvious. The gypsy game is a redundant plot element - the same effect is achieved by the fact that the boys are twins. The author seems to take the easy way out: he neither assumes a POV nor does the plot justify the unannounced changes in POV.SPOILER The only enjoyable part of the novel I found was the final scene. At least the demise of the infant was inventive.
