REVIEW OF BPP ACCA P4 STUDY MANUAL VBOU

• OK, I get it that this book is not merely about totalitarian regimes; rather, it is warning that "negative utopia" can stem from democratic societies, and things like doublethink, thought police and such can take the individuality from every person in the society, and so on ..But we are reading a novel, not a political thesis. In this book the writing is as bland as water, the characters are cardboard cutouts, and the story is boring. Judged by its literary merits, I simply cannot agree that it is a masterpiece.

• A classic of literature that should be read multiple times by everyone, it predicts a bleak world of misinformation and mind control. Still chilling every time I read it.
